

Celebrating 50 years...

Join us this IPC Week!

16th - 22nd October 2022

Get involved and celebrate 50 years of Infection Prevention with GAMA Healthcare Australia. Our theme is 'Look how far we've come', which highlights outdated practices that seem unimaginable by today's IPC standards.

INFECTION PREVENTION WEEK 2022

How can you participate?

Tell us or show us what celebrating 50 years of Infection Prevention means or give an example of an old medical practice, showing how far we've come in IPC. Your ideas could be expressed as:

- Sculpture or painting
- A decorated department

We encourage you to be as creative as possible! Involve your team, your patients, or your residents in your submission.
